ABOUT The Program

Equitable opportunities for education and economic empowerment are intertwined with women's right to live with dignity. Nothing, more than education and meaningful employment, has the potential of breaking down the walls built around women. Education is instrumental in helping women defy stereotypes which may block their potentially bright future.

Centum Foundation in association with Aricent Technology [Holdings Limited], invites applications from women engineering graduates for IT Skilling and Employability Enhancement Program, aiming to empower them through a Holistic Professional Development program. Thus enabling them to embark on a Technology Career path thereby increasing women's participation in the CORE Engineering Sector and also contributing in the economic & social development of the country.
